

In this chapter they showcase _____ via goose flying in packs. Because with a group of goose they replace the leaders position if the leader gets tired of flying so the flock of goose can go farther. Synergizing happens everywhere usually needed to _____ overall goal. Teamwork requires people to deal with people's differences so they can properly conquer their main goal. Finally, working together makes more challenging tasks easier to accomplish, working to complete so goals require you to push with the rest of the team to meet a deadline.

This is telling people very loudly that settling disputes because there different is the most important step towards creating a formidable group. Being _____ towards diversity will make teamwork limited or separate the team. Compromising among others will help if people can't deal with diversity but _____ differences is more important. The most ignorant class of people are those who shun diversity even though its about your actions that define you. Thats why racist groups here in the United States are so low in support because they exclude Muslims, Mexicans, African Americans and any other type of people that go against their ideology.

The shunning _____ makes people go into their own bubble thinking the world is against them and they are perfect. The toleration mostly focus on the idea of dealing with peoples differences but no being proud of doing so. The celebration of people's differences shows that you how respect towards people's ideas because divided you fall and united you stand.

Accepting people who are _____ can bring in new ideas to the table. The ideas created by others can be mixed in with your own to make something bigger. But ideas form in many different ways such as writing, reading, telling stories, music and imagery.

Shunners will go against people just because there different limiting there options by discriminating people. There are many reasons such as a different idea, skin color and religion. Tolerator's are simply ok with people's differences but don't _____ of their different skills. Their motto is "You keep to yourself and I'll keep to myself." Celebrator's focus on accepting everyone with a _____ idea. They are more about being Pro - Humanity instead of rejecting people based on their ethnicity, religion, age or any set of ideals.

_____ : Learn through reading, writing, telling stories." "Logical-Mathematical: Learn through logic, patterns, categories, relationships" "Bodily-Kinesthetic: Learn through bodily sensations, touching" "Spatial: Learn through images and pictures." "Musical: Learn through sound and rhythm" "Interpersonal: Learn through interaction and communication with others." "Interpersonal: _____ through their own feelings" You must respect those with different way of learning because they might have problem with it. Take advantage of those differences and celebrate them because collaborating creates more creative ideas. Same idea in politics no president has ever been a extreme Democrat or a extreme Republican because people want a person that will favor both sides like a moderate Republican or Democrat. Favoring both sides is the only effective way to make a _____.

